CRIMES AND CRIMINALS

Working the Murderers and Thieves
Of Into Eternity

Book Walker Pays the Penalty—Mona-na Thieves Strung Up—
Two Wife Murderers to Hang July 24—Other Crimes.

TEXARKANA, Ark., June 28.—Dock Walker was hanged here today.

The crime which he expiated on the gallows was one of the most cold-blooded in the history of Miller County. It was committed in January, on the Jack Roberts plantation, twelve miles below Texarkana, Ark. On the Saturday previous to the killing, Dock Walker and his victim, Lucius Grant, both negroes, had traded wares and shoes. On the Monday following Walker went to the plantation where Grant, in company with a fellow laborer, was working, and demanded the return of his wares and shoes. Grant refused to exchange back, when Walker drew his gun and covered him. Grant still refused, and the third party told Walker to lower his gun, which he did, but immediately raised it again, and told Grant to give up the articles or he would shoot. Grant still refused, saying, "Wait a minute, till I come back," and started toward the house. As he walked away Walker fired. The charge of buckshot took effect between the shoulders and passed clear through the body of the victim. Death resulted instantly. The negro who witnessed the affair hurried to Briggs Mills, where Roberts was working, and told him of the occurrence. Roberts armed himself and started for the scene, but met Walker on the road, coming toward town, and ordered him to disarm, which he had been made, and the two Roberts brought him to town and turned him over to the sheriff, who placed him in the jail. He has since been confined.

The condemned man met his fate bravely. Two thousand people witnessed the execution.

Horse Thieves Killed.

HELENA, M. T., June 28.—Ed. Owens and St. Nickerson, two horse thieves, who recently stole eight horses from the Union & Billings Stage Company, at Canyon Springs Station, in Montana, were overhauled and killed last night by a party of cowboys and all the horses recovered together with the two riders and the thieves. It is hoped this prompt and effective action of the cowboys will break up the last gang of thieves which has infested the Mussel Shell country for some time.

Sentenced to Hang.

NEW ORLEANS, June 28.—Governor Moore today sentenced to the gallows in the case of two wife murderers in this city, and directed that they be hanged on July 28. Kendrick Holland, one of the condemned, is a native of the lowest type. He was a desperado, carter and burglar, who worked in a negro gambling house in the French quarter. His victim, Hannah Glover, his wife, was playing cards with a party of negroes in the saloon when, without warning, he rushed in, thought she should, after an unneeded reprimand, Holland drew his pistol and shot her in the back, killing her almost instantly. His excuse was that she, being his wife, was his property, and he had a right to do with her what he pleased, even to killing her if she disobeyed him. He will doubtless die under the impression that he was justified in maintaining domestic discipline in this case. Victor Eld, the other condemned, is a white man, who stabbed and killed his wife, Tella McCarthy, on Mardi Gras morning three years ago. He was lazy and incapable and she worked as a servant and gave him her earnings. The alleged cause of the crime was jealousy. The defense was insanity. If languished it will be the first time a white man has been hanged for murder in this State since Governor Warmouth hanged three Sicilians in 1871.

Will Hang September 25.

SALINA, Mo., June 28.—Joseph Drake, the negro convicted of assassinating David Swartz, was sentenced yesterday to be hanged on the Texas State Prison, his accomplice, who turned State's evidence, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Whiskey Gave Him Away.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—A man named Luke Shane was arrested here yesterday for drunkenness, and late developments go to show that he is probably the murderer of Dr. Collins, the rich farmer who was killed at Ostoria, Ia. Kaib County, a few weeks ago. The Collins family was a most brutal man and his body thrown into an old well, after which the house was ransacked and a large amount of money secured. The man was taken to the County arrived late last night, and says the evidence against Shane is of the strongest character, and that he will not doubt be convicted.

A Fiend Captured.

TYLER, Tex., June 28.—An attempt was made last evening to wreck the band and passenger train on the Texas & Gulf Railway at a point a mile west of Winona. Several large trees were securely fastened near the engine, and the train was at twilight, and the obstruction was seen by the engineer just in time to shut the throttle and jump. The train was thrown from the track but no serious damage was done. As the engineer jumped he saw a negro running to the bushes. He gave chase, and the negro fled. The negro was taken on board and brought to this city. Indignation among citizens runs high. The negro was seen by a man named watching over him. There is danger of lynching.

A Negro Lynched for Slander.

COLUMBUS, Miss., June 28.—Near Caladous, Alack Leach colored, was hanged by lynchers and his body ridged with bullets. Leach had made disparaging remarks about the lynchers, and was hanged by lynchers and his body ridged with bullets, which led to the lynching.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock, but no business was done.

The Secretary of the Navy sent in a communication transmitting a complete report on the State of the Navy, in response to a resolution.

Mr. Pendleton's resolution relative to the codification of laws concerning the Signal Service Bureau and asking the Secretary of War for a report as to the propriety of continuing the bureau under the supervision of the War Department went over temporarily.

Mr. Butler gave notice that on Monday he will ask a vote on the resolution to investigate the condition of the New York National Bank.

The House bill granting the right of way through the Indian Territory to the Southern Kansas Railway was passed.

A joint resolution providing for the settlement of accounts with Mobile & Ohio Railway was also passed.

HOUSE.

After some important business, by unanimous consent, Mr. Hancock (Texas) presented the conference report on the Pension Appropriation.

Southern and Central Pacific Stock.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 28.—Charles Crocker, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, says the statement attributed to him in an interview as telegraphed last night, that he could not borrow twenty-five cents on Southern Pacific bonds, is absolutely false. Continuing, he said, "I have loaned money on Southern Pacific as collateral at ninety cents. They have never been refused in this market at that rate. Had I made any such statement as that would have been suicidal, which is at once proof of its falsehood. The Central Pacific is not embarrassed, and will probably pay its employees this month as usual."

ASIATIC CHOLERA.

A Post-Mortem Examination Leaves Doubt as to Point.

TOKYO, June 28.—The report kept running in the streets all last night for parrying purposes. A post-mortem examination has been made, and the result was that the stomach was contracted and shrunken. Spots of a yellow hue were found on the intestines. The kidneys were affected, but the liver was intact.

A Franco-Chinese Fight.

PARIS, June 28.—Hanoi dispatches state that the Chinese regulars, with artillery, entrenched themselves at Langson in violation of the terms of the Convention. The French forces on Monday on the march, killing seven and wounding forty-two. General Legros sent three battalions of reinforcements. General Michel told that the French numbered 700. "We are on the way to Langson," he said. The French lost two officers.

Paris, June 28.—There is a report that the French have captured a Chinese prisoner in a narrow defile and nearly cut to pieces.

Driven by a Dead Man.

RICHFIELD SPRINGS, June 28.—The severe storm which visited this place yesterday caused much damage in the surrounding country. During the storm Jack Watts was driving a load of lumber to Springfield. When about three miles from the village a bolt of lightning knocked down one of his horses and a second killed Watts. The horse, however, rose and the team took the wagon to the home of Watts' father, and when it arrived at the door the hands of the driver were grasped the horse. The fluid appears to have run around his body and then jumped to the ground, which it tore up for several feet.

Applications of the Press.

CHICAGO, June 28.—The sub-committee on Press of the Democratic National Convention is in session this morning at the Palmer House, discussing applications for seats. Nearly six thousand have already been received. Only a small proportion of these can be accommodated with desk privileges.

A Bomb.

VIENNA, June 28.—A bomb filled with a powerful explosive was found in the shrubbery near the exhibition grounds, and public buildings are carefully watched, owing to fears of outrages by anarchists. The bomb, containing three ounces of dynamite, is reported exploded.

Failed to Explode.

LONDON, June 28.—A narrow escape from dynamite disaster is reported from the Great Eastern Railway. A train was passing over a bridge when a dynamite and powder was placed on the street car track. Over this car filled with people passed, but the machine failed to explode.

The Victim of Death.

FENDLAY, O., June 28.—Frederick Mueller, living in the southeastern part of this county, was drowned while competing with several negroes in a swimming contest.

MITCHELL AND SULLIVAN

The Former Suffering From a Severe Attack of Fever.

However, in a Dispatch He Indicates that He Will Come to Time, and should He be Defeated, He Will Have a Good Excuse.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Regarding the illness of Charles Mitchell, the English pugilist, Dr. Brown said to night:

"Mitchell was a very sick man. He was suffering with what is called intermittent fever, fever and ague and chills and fever. His temperature was 101. I prescribed quinine to break the fever and bromide of potassium and acetate to quiet his nerves. His system was in bad condition generally. He was very anxious to have me cure him before Monday. Another attack is due to-morrow, and if the quinine he takes will ward it off, as I believe it will, he will undoubtedly be better on Monday, but not as strong as he was before Saturday last."

Mitchell was sitting in the parlor of the Hotel Hamilton, looking pale and weary with the landlady's daughter. His boyish looking face was haggard and his lips full of fever blisters.

"I never felt better in my life than I did before this damned disease set in," he said. "I've lost seven pounds since then. I've got to look to-morrow to get back into it again."

"Charley," said Billy Madden, "there is no use talking. You won't be able to knock Sullivan. You are not in a condition for it."

"I tell you," said Mitchell to the reporter, "I'll fight Sullivan to-morrow. I'll come on to-morrow. It's due on Monday. Two hours before that time I am going to take an extra dose of quinine to keep it off. My recuperation over here in this fine ocean air has been so great and I have trained so well that my sickness, if it doesn't recur to-morrow, will be very little effect on my condition on Monday."

The match is not yet off and won't be off until I find out whether I am to be well or sick to-morrow. I have never been sicker than I was on Saturday night and if it comes to that, I'll fight Sullivan. The ladies in the hotel I don't know how I could have pulled through."

To-night Mitchell telegraphed from Long Branch to Al Smith.

Had intermittent fever. Feel well to-day. If same to-morrow will box."

Earlier in the day Madden telegraphed to Al Smith that Mitchell had malaria. Madden wanted to know whether Sullivan would accept a selected exhibition set, to say, Sullivan was commiserated with at that point. He refused, saying he would engage in no hippodromes.

When seen yesterday evening that Mitchell would not be able to spar, Al Smith had a consultation with Jack Burke, the young boxer from England, who once fought a draw with Mitchell, and if Mitchell doesn't come to time Burke will probably stand up for Sullivan.

Harry Hill claimed that his man, Bill England, should have the opportunity, and Sullivan was asked by wire to say what he would do with either man. He answered to-night:

"Will meet either England or Burke, the man having the value of the whole house, or else not to give them better than twenty per cent, or not over twenty-five."

It is now a matter of debate whether Burke has shown himself a good man as Mitchell, and that if Mitchell does not appear Burke would be the next best man to draw a crowd and make the match interesting. This consideration seems likely to decide the matter in his favor if it becomes necessary to find a man to take Mitchell's place.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Daily News received the following dispatch to-day:

"LONG BRANCH, N. J., June 28.—Have entirely recovered. Shall box with Sullivan at Madison Square Garden Monday night sure."—CHARLES MITCHELL.

"MAUD IS PERFECT"

Vanderbilt Says, "and Times Will be better."

NEW YORK, June 28.—Regarding J. I. Case's challenge to match Jay-Jay-Sue against any horse for a race or exhibition at Madison Square Garden, Mr. Vanderbilt said to-night:

"Why anybody should have impudence enough to allude to me as a challenged party, knowing I never allow Maud to be trotted in a race, is past my comprehension. I keep Maud for my own amusement. I am satisfied she is the fastest horse in the world, and she is a real beauty. There are horses that I would not have even if they could trot a mile a minute. Maud is perfect in everything."

Mr. Vanderbilt then branched off onto the stock market and said to-night:

"After election we shall have a return of confidence and better times. I know lots of people who are foolishly converting their money into money and placing it in vaults where it can earn nothing. Why I know a man who has a lot of specie stored in his house and bank drawers. He is sitting down and doors, and sleeps with a revolver under his pillow. His second night's experience was that he was sitting up and family came in late, and not understanding the alarm, set it off. Out came the pistol and he banged away, hitting a valuable silver vase, and the family was held. Oh, no, I shall not use Maud's for other than road purposes this year."

A Singular Accident.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—Shortly after the east-bound train was passing Chicago & Alton last Independence last night, and while the train was running at full speed, the crown sheet of the boiler was blown off, and the engine disabled. Henry Simonds, the fireman, was thrown from the cab and bruised and scalded. He was taken to the hospital, and is recovering from his injuries. The passengers were undisturbed. The train was delayed two hours.

WHEELING, June 28.—While Wm. Rader and a young lady were buggy riding last evening, a flash of lightning tore up the road for twenty-five yards in the rear of their buggy. They hurried on to a covered bridge, which they had scarcely entered, when a flash struck the bridge, destroying it, and killing the horse. Neither the man nor woman was hurt.

A WOMAN'S TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

LITCHFIELD, O., June 28.—Mrs. A. Fritz, a prominent and wealthy lady of this place, last evening while walking along the street during a heavy storm, lightning struck her in the face, followed a watch chain from the neck to the waist, where the current divided and followed each of the lower limbs, tearing the shoes from her feet.
